

TEST YOUR KNOWLEDGE ?

1. What disqualification on a Dutch rabbit is called a “tied front leg?”
2. These meat rabbits must be 6 months or older and weigh over 8 pounds?
3. A cavy will replace a broken tooth within how many days?
4. A senior in this rabbit breed must be at least 20 inches long or it will be disqualified.
5. What are the three grades of rabbit carcasses?
6. Using this type of breeding program will produce more genetically uniform offspring?
7. This rabbit disease causes hemorrhages throughout the body.
8. What causes the chalky white substance sometimes found on the sides and floors of cages?
9. This breed of rabbit has alternating colors on its face, ears, body & legs?
10. Rabbits regulate feed intake according to what?
11. This liquid mixed with water is an excellent solution to use to clean cages & nest boxes?
12. Removing the doe from her young or the kits from the does is called what?
13. This lop eared breed is to have ear length of at least 21 inches from tip to tip?
14. A doe has how many uterine horns?
15. Rabbits only eat plants which makes them what?

(answers available after June 1st on our website: www.msrbba.net)

* Please note – questions are taken from the following references:
ARBA Standard of Perfection, ARBA Guidebook & Rabbit Production

Test Your Knowledge Answers
May/June 2006

1. When the body color extends below the elbow.
2. Stewers
3. 7 days
4. Flemish Giant
5. A, B and C
6. Inbreeding
7. VHD
8. Excess Calcium
9. Harlequin
10. Energy Need
11. Household bleach
12. Weaning
13. English Lop
14. 2
15. Herbivores